

LE PAVILLON

This dry white cuvée, from Chenin vines 30 to 40 years old, is cultivated on very old and varied north/east facing soil, composed of fine sandstone, flakes of micas, flaky or charcoal claystones, and the "square stone, a hard and clear local volcanic rock. Raised for several months in a concrete egg, it symbolizes the permanent quest for balance with nature.

ANALYSES

Alcohol content: 13.46% vol Residual sugars: 0.9 g/L Total acidity: 3.23 g/L Volatile acidity: 0.53 g/L Total SO2: 52 mg/L

SERVICES

To decant at least 30 minutes before serving; Service temperature: between 10°C and 13°C; Our wines are unfiltered, they may have a slight deposit and a cloudy color

